

How better to be involved with your community than by volunteering your time with Broward's most precious resource - its students?

An hour a week can mean the difference between success and failure for a student. A project your company sponsors can ignite a whole classroom's desire to learn.

The variety of volunteer opportunities ensures that there will be one to suit you and your company, whether you have two employees or 2,000.

Opportunities to Make a Difference

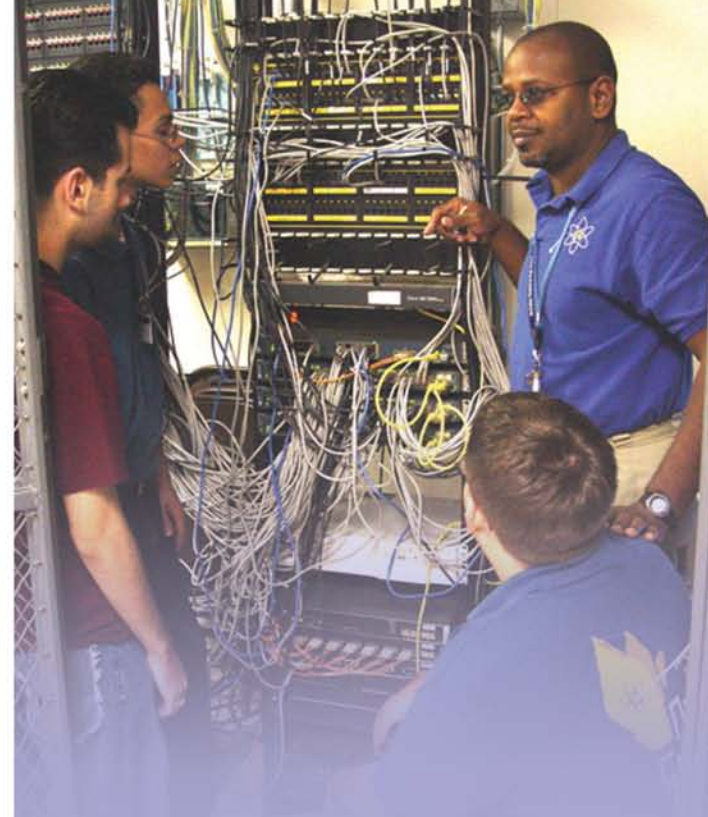

Here are just a few examples of how you can get involved:

- Mentor or tutor a student
- Read or be read to by a student
- Provide real-world projects for students to solve
- Serve as a judge for an academic competition or fair
- Develop a classroom-based mock business
- Provide career-shadowing and internship experiences
- Have employees serve as career mentors
- Sponsor or chaperone a field trip
- Donate equipment, training and materials
- Create incentive and motivation programs to reward students for achievement
- Level the playing field for students in lower economic brackets by paying for participation in a field trip, buying a school uniform, or purchasing books for home use

No Limits

Opportunities are limited only by your imagination. For example:

- Math Nights at Publix encompass real-world critical thinking and problem solving
- City of Hollywood provides career internships to middle and high school students
- Holland & Knight employees read to elementary students and buy books for them three times a year
- The North Broward Medical Center provides medical internships
- Millennium Technology's systems engineers co-teach advanced systems networking
- CH2M Hill works with high school engineering students on the National Bid Competition
- Upchurch Management dba McDonald's sponsors the Ronald McDonald Reading Challenge
- Marine Industry Association of S. Florida sponsors a boat building competition

Rewards... Now and Again

Your partnership and support will influence Broward County Public Schools students... students who will become our community's future leaders.

For partners, the rewards are both immediate and long-term because a better education system translates directly to economic success right here in your community.

As a partner, your company will get positive exposure among students, faculty, parents and the community. And, you will get the personal satisfaction of knowing that you've helped students prepare for better futures and better lives.

Whether you are a small business or a major corporation, we need you to be involved. Partners In Education is an investment in your kids, your community and your future.
